

Patagonia Health Academy Subsites

A customizable learning portal designed for your organization's unique workflows.

Patagonia Health Academy is your centralized hub for EHR training — with a growing library of 400+ on-demand learning objects created by our experts, available to your staff anytime, anywhere.

A subsite is a private, organization-specific learning portal within the Academy where your team can build and deliver custom training content alongside Patagonia Health's core library of resources.

Subsites can be configured to train on your organization's unique workflows, programs, and processes. Whether you need to onboard new hires, track annual compliance requirements, or centralize resources, a subsite brings everything together in one place.

Customization Options

- Custom branding with organization logos, colors, and visual identity
- Custom menus and navigation tailored to programs, departments, or workflows
- Organization-specific resources, policies, forms, and documentation

Key Features

- Create and manage organization-specific courses, learning paths, and resources
- Deliver role-based training
- Track completion and compliance
- Reduce onboarding time and support requests
